Pintaile's Pizza®

As seen in The New York Times $15.00 and Under column
"It is refreshing to find Pintaile's Pizza selling its unconventional pizza. In fact, Pintaile's Pizza's crust is topped with lots of fresh vegetables and cheese - and the cheese is deeper pizza than in the dough, starchy crust varieties. Pintaile's slight smoke flavor is characteristic of brick oven baking. The pizza is real!"

Maybe it's the dough. It is organic, with a little wheat germ tossed in... or it could be the fresh mozzarella... Then again, perhaps it's not any one thing at all, but a combination of all our delicious, fresh, gourmet ingredients and the extra time and care we use to make sure each and every one of your orders is just right!

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

We started out as an antique shop way back in 1977, so it should be no surprise that we took our name from an antique stove. But a Potbelly stove was more than just a place to cook. Potbelly stoves were gathering places in homes and communities, warm little outposts where folks could share a meal and some conversation. While the stoves might be a thing of the past, you can still find the same warmth and good vibes at a Potbelly in your neighborhood.

So for us, Potbelly is more than just a name. It's a symbol of what we are. It's a place where folks gather to grab toasted sandwiches and freshly prepared salads, catch a local musician, enjoy a hand-dipped shake and maybe even make some new friends. We're not just in your neighborhood, we're your neighborhood sandwich shop.
